

PG Diploma in Guidance and Counselling (PGDGC): PG Diploma in Guidance & Counseling started in 2019.

Annual Intake: 40

- Bright Future as counsellors in schools, hospitals, & counselling centres
- Eligibility: Bachelor's/ postgraduate degree in any discipline, not less than 50% marks

Why study PG Diploma in Guidance & Counseling?

Every course has benefits and skills, students must be aware of while choosing them.

- The course has a variety of job opportunities available due to its growing demand in India and Abroad.
- One can become a counselor after the course.
- It will be beneficial for a high pay scale jobs in India and Abroad.
- The candidate can gain more experience and skills.
- Skills required to be a part of the course: The skills which are required to be a part of the course post graduate diploma in guidance and counseling:
  - Analytical skills: It means the candidate has to collect and analyze information, interpret data and make a decision on different factors.
  - Creativity: one should have creativity skills so that they can use their original ideas in work.

- Teamwork: One candidate should work with other associates to work efficiently and effectively. Should support each other. Everyone should contribute their effects to achieve goals.
- Good programming skills: They should have quick learning ability. They work hard by learning new necessary skills.
- Communication skills: one should be a good listener, friendliness, has confidence, respect each other, etc. makes a good communicator.

Services:

- Seminars
- Expert Talks by Faculty
- Entry Level Testing
- Individual and Group Guidance & Counseling Services for students, parents and community.
- Career Exhibition
- Career Talks by Students
- Extension Lectures