

Social Studies Lab

The social studies lab is well equipped with physical and political maps of world, India and other countries, globe, charts, models (working and non-working) etc. the encouraging environment of this resource centre enhances the creativity among future teachers. It provides ample opportunity for developing time and space sense among students. During teaching practice students are facilitated to teach S.St. through the teaching aids available here.

